

GLOBAL WEEK AHEAD

The weekend companion to the Daily Need to Know

Everything coming up. Week of Mon 22 Sep 2026. All times GMT+8.
Prepared Sun 20 Sep 2026 — before the Monday Asia open.

1 · Setup snapshot — where we closed Friday

A hawkish Fed set the tape. Stocks limped out of a volatile week — the Dow logged its worst week since March and a third straight weekly loss, even as the Nasdaq eked out a weekly gain. The 10-year yield flirted with 5% (19-year highs) before oil softened and pulled it back. Gold printed fresh records; silver hit a 13-year high.

Instrument	Fri 18 Sep close	Day	Read into Monday
S&P 500	7,650.50	+0.17%	Off 5% highs; futures soft on yield spike
Nasdaq Composite	26,522.55	+0.39%	Only major index up on the week; AI/semis carry
Dow Jones	51,682.64	-0.18%	Worst week since March; rate-sensitives lag
US 10Y yield	~4.94%	eased	Touched ~5.00% intraweek; 5% is the pain line
US 2Y yield	~4.73%	eased	Curve still flat; Fed at 3.75–4.00%
DXY (Dollar)	~100.5	firm	Firm on hawkish dots; watch 101
Gold	$4,368.60	+0.60%	Record close; eyeing $4,400
Silver	$67.18	+3.02%	13-year high; real-yield vs hedge tug
Brent crude	$103.87	-0.9%	Saudi pipeline restart eased supply fear
WTI crude	$100.30	-1.6%	$100 line the tell for inflation feed-through
Bitcoin	~$80,000	+5%	Rebound from $75k post-Fed / Clarity Act

Levels are Friday-session closes; futures and Asia-open reads are directional. Verify live prices before acting.

2 · TL;DR

TL;DR The market is repricing a Fed that just hiked into elevated inflation (to 3.75–4.00%) with a hawkish dot plot pointing to one more in 2026. The week is defined by Wednesday's global flash PMIs, a central-bank super-Thursday (Norges, Riksbank, SNB, Banxico) alongside the Xi-Trump summit in Washington, and month-end US data (durable goods, final Q2 GDP, and the PCE inflation print). Watch the 10-year's 5% line — it is the fulcrum for equity multiples, the dollar, and gold.

3 · The big picture — what to watch

1. The hawkish Fed and the march toward 5% on the 10-year.

The FOMC hiked 25bp to 3.75–4.00% (unanimous) on 16 Sep — its first increase since 2023 — and the dot plot showed 16 of 18 officials expecting another hike this year. Chair Warsh framed it as “discipline, not a decision.” Goldman now pencils in an October move.

Watch: Duration and rate-sensitives stay on the back foot. ~55% priced for an Oct 28 hike. A clean break of 5.00% on the 10Y is the multiple-compression trigger for equities.

2. Wednesday's global flash PMIs — the growth-pulse check.

September prelim S&P Global PMIs land across the US, euro zone and UK on Wed (Japan Thu). EZ composite has been resilient (~52.0); UK ~52.5; Japan mfg ~54.8. The question is whether activity holds despite higher energy prices and the yield back-up.

Watch: A soft services read would revive the growth-scare / stagflation debate right as the Fed leans hawkish — bad mix for cyclical, good for gold.

3. The Xi-Trump summit (Thu) — trade truce on the line.

Presidents Xi and Trump meet in Washington on 24 Sep for their second summit this year. Agenda: extending the tariff truce, Chinese ag/Boeing purchases, US access to rare earths and critical minerals, tech-export relief, plus Taiwan and Iran.

Watch: Any truce extension or minerals deal is risk-on for semis, materials and China proxies; a stumble hits Hang Seng and the AUD. Headline-driven — keep size modest into Thursday.

4. The precious-metals melt-up — record gold, 13-year-high silver.

Gold closed at a record $4,368.60 and silver at $67.18, extending a post-Fed recovery as softer oil dragged yields off the highs. The metals are the market's inflation-hedge / real-asset expression against a Fed hiking into sticky prices.

Watch: Gold's $4,400 and silver's $68 are the breakout tells; miners (and Aussie names) are leveraged. A sharp real-yield jump is the main risk to the trade.

5. Oil near $100 and live Middle-East supply risk.

Brent ~$104 / WTI ~$100 eased as Saudi Arabia moved to resume East-West pipeline flows, but Houthi/Yemen and US-Iran frictions keep a supply premium in the tape. Oil is the swing factor for the inflation narrative — and thus yields.

Watch: Sustained WTI above $100 re-tightens the inflation screws and pressures central banks to stay hawkish. Watch API (Tue) / EIA (Wed) inventories.

6. Central-bank super-Thursday.

Norges Bank, the Riksbank, the SNB and Banxico all decide Thursday, following the BoJ's hike to 1.25% and the BoE's hold at 3.75%. The global rates backdrop is tilting hawkish, not dovish.

Watch: Norges is a genuine 50/50 (hike vs hold) — the FX-vol event. SNB/Riksbank/Banxico expected on hold. A synchronized hawkish lean underpins the dollar.

4 · Economic calendar — the week ahead (GMT+8)

Times are approximate, local-converted to GMT+8, and should be confirmed against a live calendar. Consensus shown where available.

Monday 21 Sep

Time	Event	Consensus	Why it matters
—	Japan market holiday (Respect for the Aged Day)	—	Thin Asian liquidity; no Nikkei/JGB cash session
09:15	China 1-yr & 5-yr Loan Prime Rate	3.00% / 3.50% (hold)	16th straight hold expected; a cut would signal growth worry
late	US Chicago Fed Nat'l Activity Index (Aug)	—	Broad growth gauge; light start to the US week

Tuesday 22 Sep

Time	Event	Consensus	Why it matters
22:00	US Richmond Fed Manufacturing (Sep)*	—	Regional factory pulse (*some calendars Wed — confirm)
—	US Current Account (Q2)	—	External balance; secondary for markets

Wednesday 23 Sep — global flash PMI day

Time	Event	Consensus	Why it matters
16:00	EZ flash composite PMI (Sep)	~52.0 prior	Can activity hold through higher energy prices?
16:30	UK flash composite PMI (Sep)	~52.5	Keeps BoE cautious; services the driver
21:45	US S&P Global flash PMIs (Sep)	—	First read on Sep US growth momentum
midweek	South Africa Reserve Bank (SARB)*	~52% priced for +25bp	Split call; credibility at stake (*Tue/Wed — confirm)
22:30	US EIA crude inventories	—	Oil is the inflation swing factor

Thursday 24 Sep — central-bank super-Thursday + Xi summit

Time	Event	Consensus	Why it matters
07:30	Japan flash PMI (Sep)	mfg ~54.8	Semis/AI demand vs cost pass-through
09:30	Australia jobs (Aug)	+20k; u/e 4.5%	RBA ~96% priced to hike in Sep — jobs colour it
15:30	Riksbank decision	Hold 1.75%	Cooler CPI; watch hike-bias signalling
15:30	SNB decision	Hold (0-2% band)	On-hold consensus; 2027 hike debate

Time	Event	Consensus	Why it matters
16:00	Norges Bank decision	50/50 hike vs hold	The FX-vol event of the day
16:00	German Ifo (Sep)	—	Euro-area confidence check
daytime	Xi-Trump summit, Washington	—	Tariff truce, rare earths, Taiwan — headline risk evening	Banxico decision	Hold 6.50%	Sticky services inflation keeps it on hold
—	Canada retail sales (Aug)	—	BoC on hold at low end of neutral

Friday 25 Sep — US month-end data

Time	Event	Consensus	Why it matters
—	China Mid-Autumn Festival holiday	—	Mainland shut; thinner regional liquidity
20:30	US durable goods orders (Aug)	—	Capex proxy; volatile transport component
20:30	US final Q2 GDP	—	Backward-looking confirmation
20:30	US initial jobless claims	—	Labour-market resilience the Fed is watching
22:00	US existing home sales (Aug)	—	Housing under the 5%-yield squeeze
TBC	US PCE price index (Aug)	—	Marquee inflation read — some calendars show Fri 25 / early wk of 28 Sep. CONFIRM live.

5 • Central banks & policy events

Central bank	When	Expectation	Note
China (PBoC LPR)	Mon	Hold 3.00%/3.50%	16th consecutive hold; leaning on liquidity, not broad cuts
SARB (S. Africa)	Midweek*	~52% for +25bp	Split MPC; inflation above band, growth soft (*confirm day)
Riksbank	Thu	Hold 1.75%	SEB sees ~60% odds of a hike within three meetings
SNB	Thu	Hold	Inflation inside 0–2% band; 2027 hike debate opens
Norges Bank	Thu	Coin-flip	Mixed CPI vs soft growth; “close call” per Danske/SEB
Banxico	Thu	Hold 6.50%	No near-term cuts; services inflation persistent
Fed (context)	Oct 28 next	~55% for +25bp	Just hiked to 3.75–4.00%; Goldman expects Oct hike
BoJ / BoE (recap)	last wk	BoJ +25bp→1.25%; BoE hold 3.75%	Global rates backdrop tilting hawkish, not dovish

6 • Earnings on deck

A light, off-cycle week ahead of next week's cluster (Micron, Nike, Costco, Accenture — all ~30 Sep). The action this week is consumer, housing and labour-adjacent names.

Company	Date	When	What the market wants
AutoZone (AZO)	Tue 22	Pre-open	Q4 FY26; rev exp +7.5% to $6.71B, EPS $54.14 — consumer resilience
THOR Ind. / MillerKnoll	Tue 22	Pre-open	Big-ticket discretionary demand under high rates
KB Home / Worthington	Tue 22	After-close	Housing orders & margins as yields near 5%
General Mills (GIS)	midweek	—	Staples volumes vs pricing; defensive tell
Paychex (PAYX)	Wed 23	~21:30	SMB hiring/payroll pulse
Cintas (CTAS)	Wed 23	~22:00	Employment-linked demand; broad-economy read
Carnival (CCL)	this wk*	—	Consumer-experience spend; bookings/pricing (*confirm date)

Watch: The housing/RV/cruise trio (KB Home, THOR, Carnival) is the cleanest read on how the rate back-up is biting big-ticket demand. Confirm all dates against company IR.

7 • Catalysts & events

- Xi-Trump summit (Thu 24 Sep), Washington — tariff-truce extension, rare-earth/minerals access, Boeing/ag purchases, Taiwan.

- UN General Assembly high-level week (22–25 Sep), NY — Middle East front-and-centre; Iran's Pezeshkian slated 23 Sep.
- Global flash PMIs (Wed 23 Sep) — the week's cleanest macro data cluster.
- US government funding: shutdown averted — a stopgap funds through 11 Dec, so the old 1 Oct deadline is off the table. Next test: 11 Dec.
- Quad-witching just passed (Fri 18 Sep) — dealer gamma has reset; expect more two-way, less pinning.
- China Mid-Autumn Festival (Fri 25 Sep) & Japan holiday (Mon 21 Sep) — bookend the week with thinner Asian liquidity.

8 • Rates, currencies & commodities — levels to watch

- Rates: 10Y ~4.94%, the 5.00% line is everything (19-yr highs). 2Y ~4.73%. Drivers: PCE, PMIs, Fedspeak, oil.
- USD: DXY ~100.5 and firm on the hawkish dots; watch 101. Norges/AUD the FX-vol wildcards Thursday.
- Gold/Silver: record gold ($4,400 tell), silver 13-yr high ($68 tell). Risk = a real-yield spike.
- Oil: Brent ~$104 / WTI ~$100; $100 WTI is the inflation tripwire. Saudi pipeline restart vs Houthi/Iran risk.
- Crypto: BTC ~$80k, recovering from $75k after the Fed hike and the Clarity Act failure; high-yield backdrop caps beta.

9 • Regime & immediate-term ranges

Hedgeye's live GIP/Quad nowcast and proprietary Risk Range™ figures were not retrievable at publication and should be confirmed on the subscriber platform. The ranges below are house-derived immediate-term levels around Friday's closes for orientation only — they are NOT Hedgeye's subscriber numbers.

On the growth/inflation map, the data argue for a Quad 2 read tilting toward Quad 3 — activity still solid, inflation elevated and re-accelerating, and a Fed that has resumed hiking. That regime historically favours real assets (gold, energy, TIPS) and pressures long-duration equities and bonds. Confirm the exact Quad against Hedgeye's live GIP.

Instrument	Indicative range*	TREND	*derived, verify
S&P 500	7,480 – 7,720	Bullish, late	est.
Nasdaq Comp	25,800 – 26,750	Bullish	est.
US 10Y yield	4.78% – 5.02%	Higher	est.
DXY	99.4 – 101.0	Higher	est.
Gold	4,210 – 4,430	Bullish	est.
Silver	61.5 – 68.5	Bullish	est.
Brent	99 – 108	Neutral/higher	est.
WTI	96 – 105	Neutral/higher	est.
Bitcoin	73,000 – 86,000	Neutral	est.

Where we sit / what would change it: We are in a hawkish-Fed, rising-real-yield, real-asset-bid regime. It flips risk-off if the 10Y breaks and holds above 5% (multiple compression) or if a flash-PMI miss turns the story into a growth scare. It softens (risk-on) only on a dovish surprise, an oil roll-over that drags yields lower, or a decisive Xi-Trump trade breakthrough.

10 • Positioning & themes

- Crowded: precious-metals momentum and AI/semis (the Nasdaq's weekly outperformance masks a narrow tape).
- Stretched: long gold/silver into records; short duration as the 10Y presses 5%.
- Vol: the VIX has firmed with the drawdown and yield spike — confirm the live level; the post-quad-witching gamma reset argues for wider intraday swings.
- Credit: watch high-yield spreads for the first cracks if the 10Y clears 5% — the cleanest early-warning tell.
- The one tell: the 5% 10-year. Above and held, multiples compress and the dollar/gold trade sharpens; rejected, risk gets a relief bid.

11 • Geopolitics — what's live

- US-China: the Xi-Trump summit (Thu) is the marquee event — truce, minerals, tech, Taiwan all in scope.
- Middle East: Houthi/Yemen, Saudi supply and US-Iran frictions keep an oil-supply premium; UNGA will amplify headlines.

- Russia/Ukraine: dual-use goods flows feature on the US-China agenda — a secondary-sanctions wildcard.
- Prediction markets: Polymarket/CME put ~55% on an Oct 28 Fed hike (vs ~50% hold). A US government shutdown is off the table for now (funded to 11 Dec). Verify live odds.

12 · Asia setup — Monday open

Asia opens thin and cautious: Japan is shut Monday (Respect for the Aged Day), so there is no Nikkei/JGB cash session to anchor the region. The read is defensive — a hawkish Fed and a 10Y near 5% keep the dollar firm and pressure Asian FX, while record gold/silver is a tailwind for Australian miners. China's LPR (~09:15) should be a non-event (hold). Watch USD/JPY after the BoJ's hike to 1.25%, the AUD into Thursday's jobs report, and Hang Seng / mainland sentiment into the Xi-Trump summit and the Mid-Autumn close on Friday. Intraday tells: the 10Y direction and oil.

13 · Beyond the markets — coming up

- SpaceX Starship Flight 14 — targeted ~22 Sep, aiming for its first orbital mission plus a Starlink V3 deployment (schedule slips are common; confirm).
- UN General Assembly high-level week (22–25 Sep), New York — ~130 world leaders; general debate opens 22 Sep.
- 48th WorldSkills Competition, Shanghai (22–27 Sep) — 1,400+ competitors from 70+ regions.
- Mid-Autumn Festival across China and much of Asia (~25 Sep) and Japan's Respect for the Aged Day (Mon 21 Sep) — regional market holidays.

14 · Sources & disclaimer

Sources: CNBC, Reuters, Bloomberg, Yahoo Finance, TheStreet, The Motley Fool, FXStreet, Newsquawk (Week in Focus, 21–25 Sep 2026), Trading Economics, Kiplinger, Seeking Alpha, 24/7 Wall St., GlobeNewswire / company IR (AutoZone), USAGOLD, CoinDesk / Fortune, US Federal Reserve, New York Fed / Econoday calendars, UN.org, Space.com / inkl, Polymarket / CME FedWatch. Hedgeye Quad framework per hedgeye.com (live GIP / Risk Range figures to be confirmed on subscriber platform).

Verify live prices and confirm scheduled times before acting. This is a forward-looking briefing prepared from public sources for information only; it is not investment advice. Dates, consensus figures and times are subject to change — confirm against primary calendars and company IR.